April 16, 2012

Good afternoon,

The Indiana Civil Rights Commission is hosting their 2012 Statewide Continuing Legal Education Program to celebrate 50 years of service to Hoosiers. The series, which includes six seminars throughout the state, provides legal professionals with Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credit at no charge! Each of the seminars will provide a background and legal updates in local, state and federal anti-discrimination laws.

The second stop in the series is:

Friday, May 18, 2012

Adaaa: Have you met her? Employee Rights in a New Era of Enforcement

9:00 am-12:15 pm (3.0 CLE Credits)
